

This document contains all terms, conditions and the privacy disclaimer related to the Nederlandse Vereniging van Kristallografie - Young Researchers Retreat 2022 (NVK YRR 2022) that will take place on September 29 & 30th, 2022 in Fletcher Hotel-Restaurant Veldenbos, Spoorlaan 42, 8071 BR Nunspeet, the Netherlands.

Terms and conditions NVK YRR 2022

These terms and conditions apply at every moment a participant registers for the NVK YRR 2022 through the registration form of the website: <https://www.dutchcrystallographicsociety.nl/events-2/nvk-young-researchers-retreat-2022/>.

- To register for the NVK YRR 2022 the participant needs to use the registration form and submit all the required (personal) information to complete registration. The participant guarantees that the information submitted is correct and up-to-date. The provided information will be treated conform to the privacy disclaimer below.
- When registration has been completed, the participant receives a confirmation email at the email address provided during registration.
- The confirmation email functions as the admission ticket and participants are required to show the email (digitally or printed) at the YRR 2022 on September 29th and 30th, 2022.
- It is not possible to register multiple participants at once. Registrations are committed to participants by name and are not interchangeable between persons.
- It is not possible to cancel the registration once the registration has been completed.
- The organization of the NVK YRR 2022 or the NVK are not responsible for loss of the confirmation email (and thus admission ticket).
- By registration for the NVK YRR 2022 the participant agrees on becoming an NVK member for at least one year. Membership fee of the first year membership is free when participating in the NVK YRR 2022. From the second year on, the membership fee has to be paid according to the NVK regulations described at the website: <https://www.dutchcrystallographicsociety.nl/>. Membership can only be terminated by the member and will not stop automatically.

Privacy disclaimer NVK YRR 2022

The organizing committee of the NVK YRR 2022 and the NVK respect the privacy of all users of the website (<https://www.dutchcrystallographicsociety.nl/>) and ensure that the personal information a participant provides is treated confidentially. The personal information is used for convenient and efficient registration. For other purposes the participants personal information will only be used with explicit permission of the participant. The NVK will not sell personal information to third parties and will only make the information available to third parties that are involved in processing the registration. Third parties involved are obliged to respect the confidentiality of the participants personal information. The organizing committee will use the personal information to provide the following services:

- In order to register, the name, email address and payment details are required to process the registration and provide information about the status.
- Personal information will be stored to ease participants registration and administrative properties regarding the event (e.g. monitor the available spots, check validity of registration, create the program of the NVK YRR, etc.).
- The provided email address will be used to notify participants about the status of their registration and about developments regarding the NVK YRR 2022.
- Personal and other relevant information (if provided) will be stored in the NVK-Ledenlijst as membership registration is included with registration for the NVK YRR 2022.
- During the event photographs will be taken and used for online promotion by the NVK. If you wish to not appear in an identifiable way, please contact us.
- The science presented at the NVK YRR 2022 will be treated confidentially and should not be shared without explicit permission of the presenter.
